VOL. IV. NO. 190.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

TWO DISQUALIFIED.

Capt. J. H. Rees by awarding first money in the fourth race at Hawthorne to Madrilene, a filly that finished third in a field of three, conclusively demonstrated to the public that Col. M. Lewis Clark has lost his monopoly in rendering decisions best designated by the appellation of "rare." As in a late noted case at Harlem two horses were disqualified, but this latest revelation to race goers must be given credit for novelty, as here the disqualification worked to the injury of the favorite. The taking down of the numbers, and their transposition came to most onlookers like a clap of thunder from a clear sky. No murmur of dissatisfaction was heard, as in Chicago the racing public has long ago elected to accept the decisions of race track officials. The crowd was the largest of the week. No rain had fallen and the track was in splendid condition. The weather was perfect. There were fourteen bookmakers.

Ed Corrigan's colors showed in front from the first sixteenth to the last sixteenth in the first race, Truth, the Sir Modred filly which bore them, then stopping to a walk and finishing nowhere. Con Reagan had broken in front, but he was outrun by Truth until close in, then secured the place. Prestar showed third up the back stretch and came on at the place where courage counts and won handily. Whirmantiline was fourth on the upper turn, but soon gave it up. The first four at this point were several lengths ahead of the others, but some of the back bunch ran well through the straight, notably Star and Crescent, who finished third and Elidad. The favorite, La Salle, was never prominent.

Frank Bell showed his ability to win from behind, as he never got to Batten, who ran second until ten jumps from the wire. This was a great betting race as the liberal post prices indicate. Ailyar was off first, Batten second, Frank Bell third, the trio being closely together throughout the race. Hardy Pardee was a bang up fourth at the three-eighths. Willie Martin sent Ailyar to the whip soon after reaching the straight, but the weight told and Dunne's colt, as also Fontainebleau, were soon beaten. Batten, apparently winning at the last sixteenth, was here joined by Frank Bell and only beaten in one of the most exciting of finishes. Ailyar struggled on and ran third. Kingrica, not understanding the game, was left at the post, while Fatherland and Bloss were quickly outrun.

Governor Sheehan delayed the start in the third race by refusing to join his horses at the barrier. The quicker his kind is barred the better for racing. Loyaletta, Lucy Belle and Fair Deceiver were quickest away and Lew Williams' mare was at once taken to the front by Thorpe and not again headed. Lucy Bell won in a tight fit with Sybaris, who, if not pinned in on the rail, as he was coming through at the last hundred yards, would undoubtedly have won the race. Millie M came from the rear and in a close finish got the third money away from Loyaletta. Governor Sheehan made up a lot of ground. Carrie F. ran well up to the entrance to the home stretch, but finished "absolutely."

Moncreith being kicked by Madrilene at the post, Tommy Burns dismounted and the horse being trotted to the judges' stand Judge Rees excused him. All bets were declared off and a new book made. Moncreith had opened at 8 to 5 and advanced in price to 13 to 5, while 3 to 5 against him for place might be had. After being kicked he bled badly from a wound on the off hind leg. The race was a great one. Madrilene led passing the judges' stand and was not caught until the last sixteenth. Thorpe, on Cherry Leaf, tried to get through next the rail on the first turn up the back stretch and rounding the upper turn, but Rose, on Nathanson, kept him pinned in. At the last sixteenth Cherry Leaf got past Madrilene, but Thorpe at once went hard to work and only by a vigorous ride was he able to beat Nathanson to the wire. With a boy like T. Burns up Nathanson would have won. After quite a few moments Judge Rees awarded first place to Madrilene, placing Cherry Leaf second and Nathanson third. The latter pulled up very lame. The presiding judge said: "At the last sixteenth, as Cherry Leaf came to Madrilene, the latter was driven into the fence and the boy (Everett) stopped riding (as who would not)? Now, Thorpe and Rose had been bumping all the way and the latter used his whip on the other at the bend for home, so that none could say which jockey was to blame for the crowding of Madrilene. Therefore, disqualifying both Cherry Leaf and Nathanson for first place I awarded them positions as they finished." T. C. McDowell, owner of Madrilene, was called to the judges' stand before the disqualification took place.

Dare II. won the fifth race in a romp, after lying second to Abe Furst for over six furlongs. The latter was beaten for the place by Harry Gaines, who was in fifth position rounding the the upper turn several lengths behind Abe Furst. Double Dummy lasted in third position until close in and was always tagged by Treachery. Osmon, in leaving the post, swerved into Cochise, who, at once fell gunshot behind, while Osmon's chance was destroyed.

For the sixth race Thorpe got Primate home after a hot drive in, Bryan being second after lying third all the way. Official came from the rear and ran third. Lone Princess led into the straight after displacing Eleanor Holmes. Libertine was sunk by his 117 pounds. Nat P. was fifth into the home stretch. Don Quixote, off badly, ran a good race.

Judge Rees has issued a permit to the jockeys allowing those disengaged to stand on the lawn of the paddock and watch the race in progress. He said: "I think the observation and criticism of other's methods is the best of educators and have suggested to the Hawthorne management that a small stand for the use of the jockeys be erected at the paddock fence, so that the boys may have an unobstructed view."

There being no bleaching boards above the betting ring at Hawthorne so that denizens of the ring are forced to hurry to the grand stand or raised bricks fronting it to see the race, speculation is shut off some five minutes sooner than is common, as interested parties wish to see the start, which, under Mr. Bruen's system, may take place as soon as the horses reach the post.

The coatless rail birds that sit upon the inside track fence when the horses are started at the quarter pole on the first turn form a barricade, rendering it next to impossible for the occupants of the lawn to distinguish the colors of the jockeys on the horses facing the barrier. The rail birds should be made to witness the start from the outside of the track.

Tommy Burns expects to ride one of Mr. August Belmont's colts in the Futurity. He says: "I think I shall continue to do most of my riding in the west, as I am satisfied that here I can win more races."

Judge Rees has not yet located the blame for the accident Wednesday to Numa and Jockey Ellis. The testimony of the boys riding in the race is conflicting.

J. W. Schorr and Tommy Burns left for St. Louis Thursday night, and Mr. Schorr's horses were shipped to the same place at the same time.

Col. A. W. Hamilton, associate judge at Harlem, was a visitor.

RULED OFF.

At their meeting in New York Wednesday night the stewards of the Jockey Club dispatched some decidedly important business, which is thus described in a telegram from that city:

"A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held this afternoon, Messrs. James R. Keene, James Galway, F. D. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller and F. K. Sturgis being present. The report of the Brighton Beach stewards was first taken up. In the matter of the running of the horse Burlesque the Brighton decision was confirmed. The entries of G. B. Patterson and of the horse Burlesque were ordered refused on all courses racing under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, and the trainer's license granted to G. B. Patterson and the jockey license to J. Cooley Thompson were revoked.

"Like disposition was made of the Our Johnny case. The entries of William Cheritan and the horse Our Johnny were ordered refused, and the license of James Sennet, trainer for Cheritan, revoked.

"On the report of the Stewards of the Saratoga Racing Association the jockey license of J. J. McCafferty was revoked.

The above action of the stewards of the Jockey Club is in the cases of Patterson, Cheritan, Sennet, Thompson and the horses Burlesque II. and Our Johnny, equivalent to a ruling off, while McCafferty is only debarred from riding. G. B. Patterson is a Kentuckian, brother of C. T. Patterson, who developed Ornament and other good horses. He is at present said to own only the horse Burlesque II. W. Cheritan has been "on the turf" two seasons, and his stable is not an extensive one. James Sennet was formerly a member of the racing firm of Sennet & Warn, the most popular member of their stable in those days being the horse Eclipse."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Since Mr. W. C. Whitney, in behalf of his son-in-law, Sydney Paget, joined the list of turfmen who lend distinction to the sport of racing, he has bought horses of demonstrated speed and quality with a high degree of liberality and sagacity, and already has a very strong stable. His latest purchase is the exceedingly good filly, Martha II., which he secured from H. T. Griffin for the reported price of $4,000. Barring accident, she is sure to prove a profitable investment and a worthy stable mate for Plaudit.

Of the coming Newport meeting Frank Fowler says: "I am getting things in shape for our races and if we can't have a good meeting, with high-class horses, then it's no fault of mine. I will see that only the best horses get stable room. We don't want our track crowded with a lot of broken-down selling platers, and, rather than fill up the stalls with no account skates, I will close up the track to racing and use the place to grow mushrooms."

A special race train leaves Drexel boulevard and Lake avenue for the Hawthorne track at 1 p.m., stopping at Cottage Grove and Vincennes avenues, Grand boulevard, Michigan avenue, State street, Wentworth avenue, Halsted street, Ashland and Archer avenues, at Brighton Park, connecting at Eighteenth street with the C. B. & Q. train due there at 1:45 p.m. H. T. Griffin has sold the 2-year-old colt Flavius to A. Covington.

A CALL FOR PUNISHMENT.

The late Brighton Beach meeting, though marked by some good racing, was not exactly satisfactory in all of its features, the sequel being the expulsion of several persons and horses by the stewards of the Jockey Club at their meeting Wednesday night. Some days prior to this action the following bitter "roast" of certain tendencies that had become manifest in eastern racing appeared in the Morning Telegraph and perhaps had some effect in stimulating the action that brought some evil-doers to grief:

"That the racing of the past fortnight has been most unsatisfactory every one who has kept in touch with the trend of daily events must admit. Most extraordinary things have happened at Brighton without meeting with any protest on the part of the officials except in one or two instances.

"Brighton holds a peculiar place in the family of metropolitan racetracks. From the earliest days when the 'Brown Gelding' was in frequent evidence, and when the starter and the judge did all that they could, and successfully, too, to make the 'Brown Gelding' win, to the present time, horsemen have considered Brighton as fair and legitimate prey.

"But with us the assumption of power by the Jockey Club the turf passed into a new era. Or, at least, it was supposed that racing had fallen upon more prosperous and cleaner times. There was to be no more 'Brown Geldings' like Jolly Joe at the electric light Mazpeth affair, when it was said the managers tried to 'win out' and did it in spite of the fact that Jolly Joe finished last. What matter if Jolly Joe did finish last? He was placed first anyway.

"No more of the old Guttenberg days, either, when it was alleged at the last meeting there half a dozen big New York bookmakers were robbed of nearly a million dollars. An official who had something to do with that last Guttenberg meeting said he was always in fear and trembling lest some time the deal would be shifted and every horse in the race would be 'dead,' that they would all be pulling to each other, and that they would never get to the finish.

"The Jockey Club said that these hilarious times must be relegated to oblivion. For a time the new broom swept well. Evil doers were held in check. But now the turf seems to be drifting back into old ruts again. Is it not time to call a halt? Is it not time that the stewards of the Jockey Club grasped the reins firmly and whipped unruly members into submission.

"It is unfortunate that the conditions here are such that the turf in its relations to betting cannot be managed on the same plan that is adopted in England. There the betting men cut a very small figure. They are not in a position that they can assume in any measure to dictate or that they can demand privileges not enjoyed by other patrons of the sport. Under the system in vogue here racetrack managers are no doubt often inclined to look on in complaisance at things which they would otherwise condemn most severely.

"It is a short sighted policy, however, which truckles to any class or interest in connection with the metropolitan turf. The institution is so vast that all it needs is proper management to make it self-sustaining, independent of all outside contingencies. Let the people know that all the racing everywhere in this vicinity is 'on the level,' that it is square and honest, and that any man who attempts unfair practices will be promptly ruled off, and the accommodations at the racetracks will be inadequate to hold the people who will patronize the sport.

"In professional circles, that is to say, among the betting men, the plea is often raised that if there was no opportunity to get through a 'job' now and then, the bookmakers would have to go out of business. Let them go out of business. If the public is willing and anxious to furnish the sinews of war, as it most assuredly will do under proper management, where does the bookmaker come in? Let him make his book, but let him make it on 'live' horses, not 'dead' ones. If he cannot profitably make it in that way, let him quit and get out.

"This is a broad proposition that is worthy the consideration of the stewards of the Jockey Club, namely, to run racing entirely in the interest of the public. If that be done, there can be no shadow of doubt that the racetracks will not have to look beyond the public for handsome dividends.

"The tendency of the times just now is toward the deplorable state that existed five or six years ago, before the Jockey Club instituted the cleansing process. He who runs may read. It is apparent everywhere. And something must be done. Undesirable persons, persons who are operating all the time to lose when their horses are favorites and to win at big odds, must be dealt with firmly. The turf must continue to be honorable, decent, respectable.

"That it can be made so the Jockey Club has already proven. All that is needed is the firm determination that was apparent in the first two years of Jockey Club rule. It is not necessary that officials should be obtrusively and perniciously active. Fortunately evildoers on the turf are in a very small minority. But limited as they are in number, when government is loose and careless they have the power to work untold injury to turf interests.

"Let men of wide experience be appointed to stewardships, thorough going horsemen, such, for example, as some of our best known trainers. Give them a degree of liberty of action and back them up in their rulings and decisions. No fear of scandals. There will be no scandals. On the other hand, racing will be protected from scandals, and the ragtag and bobtail who would sooner win one crooked dollar than ten straight ones will very quickly find that the eastern turf is the wrong place for them."

Winner—B. c, 3, by Preston-pans—Sophia.
Post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second, third and fourth driving to the limit. As the race was run Prestar was the best. He was lucky in getting away and had clear sailing the entire route. This colt easily galloped away from his field in the stretch. Con Reagan ran a good race. So did Star and Crescent from where he got off. The latter pinched through on the rail and just got third place in the last stride. Whatever chance La Salle had was spoiled at the start. There was a general mix-up as the barrier arose and he was entirely squeezed out of it. Burns drove him hard all the way, and it is doubtful if he could have won had he got away in front. Truth had a lot of speed. Woods pumped her out, though, the first half mile. Elidad about ran his race.
Scratched—Pitfall, 103.
Overweights—Prince Blazes, 3 pounds.
Prestar, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Con Reagan, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Star and Crescent, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. g, by Big Henry—Flora Leach.
Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a long hard drive of two. There was a fight for third place also. Frank Bell is an excellent colt. He has been considered heretofore only a sprinter, but judging from this race he can go a route. Foucon got the colt off in front but he was outrun the first part of it. On the stretch turn he seemed hopelessly beaten, but responded gamely and won handsomely in a terrific drive. Batten ran a cracking good race, too. He was under pressure the last quarter and stood it gamely. Ailyar was perhaps used too much the first part of it and tired badly the last eighth. Hardy Pardee finished strong and would have been third in another stride. Fontainebleu, off poorly, never showed any speed. The last three were outclassed.
Scratched—The Dragoon, 108; Hermita, 100; Helen's Pet, 105; Anna Bright, 100.
Frank Bell, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Batten, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Ailyar, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. m, 6, by Pirate of Penance—Fleur d'Or.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth doing their best. Lucy Belle was lucky to get away as well as she did and extremely lucky to win. Thorpe's ride more than the filly's ability is what won. He took the short route, came a trifle wide on the stretch turn and left enough room for Sybaris to get through. Jenkins foolishly dropped into the trap and Thorpe held him in all through the stretch. Millie M also suffered the same fate. Thorpe interfered with no one and there was no chance for complaint, nevertheless it was a shrewd piece of riding. Millie M was unfortunate in getting away. She perhaps ran the best race. Loyalette was raced to pieces the first five furlongs. This filly can win at a shorter route. Carrie F met with an accident and was obliged to pull up on the far turn. She looked dangerous at that point. Black Jack looked good, but could not run fast enough to keep warm.
Overweights—Lucy Belle, 4 pounds; Black Jack, 3.
Lucy Belle, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10. Sybaris, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Millie M, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Fonso—Peg Woffington.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won in a terrific drive of two. Thorpe clearly outfinished Rose. Riders reversed, Nathanson would have won. It was a very pretty contest between the first two the last sixteenth of a mile. On the far turn Madriene seemed to be going easily and the other two seemed in distress. When straightened away, though, the filly was either all out or Everett was confident after all the bumping and jostling there was on the turn that he would have a good chance to get the race on a foul basis. Just as the field was rounding the home turn Rose was fighting Thorpe with his whip. The latter, in his effort to get through between Madriene and Nathanson, bumped and interfered with both of them. The judges disqualified both Cherry Leaf and Nathanson for foul riding, placing Madriene first and the others as they finished. Moncreith was scheduled to start and went to the post, where he was kicked by Madriene. The colt was excused, all bets declared off, and the usual twenty minutes allowed for a new book. Nathanson appeared lame after the race.
Scratched—Moncreith, 112.
Nathanson, place, even.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Odd Fellow—Sister to Pendleton I.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving and coming strong. Third driving and out to the last ounce. Dare II was the best. Thorpe galloped in behind Abe Furst to the stretch turn and went to the front when ready. Judging from the race Dare is a colt with a lot of class. Harry Gaines' race was a cracking good one. He could easily have been placed in a softer spot; but evidently his party thought he was good enough to beat the Dare kind. Abe Furst seems to be an awful coward. He stopped almost to a walk the last seventy yards and after the race was tired enough to lie down. Treachery finished strong. Her race was a good one. Osmon bolted across the track at the start and almost threw Harry Gaines over the fence.
Scratched—Hessville, 104; The Tory, 107.
Harry Gaines, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5; Abe Furst, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Prince Royal—May Kennedy.
Post 5 minutes. Start poor. It was a hard drive between three. Primate was best ridden. Thorpe had him in a good position on the far turn and made his move at the right time when he hit the stretch. The colt was tiring badly at the end and needed a lot of assistance to win. Official, with an equal break, could not have lost. Little Reiff was all but left and had a lot of ground to make up. He raced Official all around his field and was running great guns at the finish. He surely can beat the same kind his next out. Bryan ran a corking good race. McNickle's finish on him was weak. Libertine, off poorly, showed some speed, but did not nearly run his race. Eleanor Holmes and Lone Princess raced each other to pieces the first part of it. Both tired badly at the end.
Scratched—Heigh Ho, 94; Pug, 99.
Primate, place, even. Bryan, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Official, show, even.
